Dots, Ties, Measures, and Counting

A dot after a note adds half of that note's value. A tie is a curved line joining two notes of the same pitch; the two notes are played as one sound lasting their combined value.

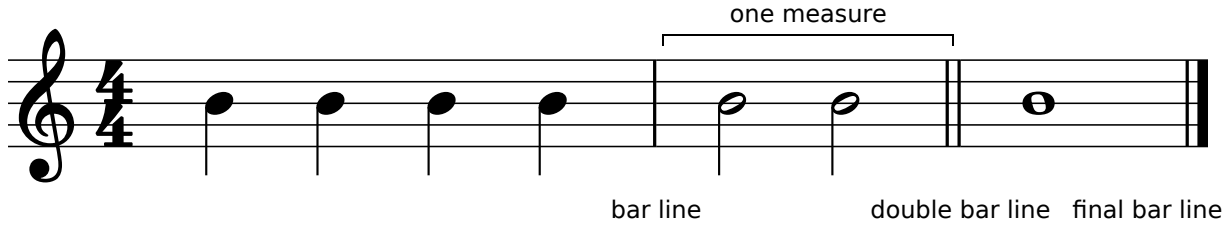

Dotted half note: 2 + 1 = 3 beats

Dotted quarter note: 1 + ½ = 1½ beats

A measure is a group of beats. A bar line is a vertical line that separates one measure from the next. A double bar line, two thin lines, marks the end of a section. A final bar line, a thin line followed by a thick line, marks the end of a piece. The 4 over 4 at the start of a staff means four quarter-note beats in each measure. Chapter 8 covers these numbers in detail.

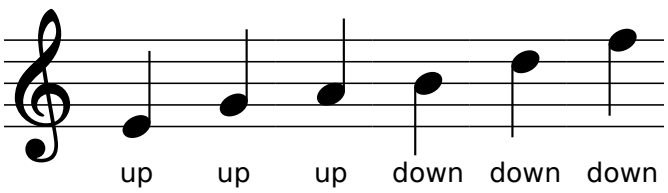

Counting

Count each beat aloud with numbers: 1 2 3 4 in a measure of four beats. Eighth notes divide a beat into two halves; count them "1 & 2 &", saying "and" for the second half of each beat. Keep counting through notes that last longer than one beat. In this book, beats that are held or rested are written in parentheses.

Stem direction

Notes below the middle line of the staff have stems going up, on the right side of the notehead. Notes on or above the middle line have stems going down, on the left side. A stem is about one octave long.

Dots, Ties, and Counting

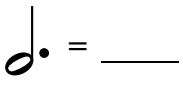

A. Dots and ties Write the total number of beats for each item. The quarter note receives one beat.

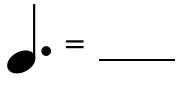

EXAMPLE  = 3

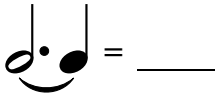

1.  = _____

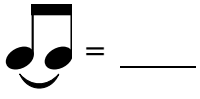

2.  = _____

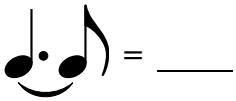

3.  = _____

4.  = _____

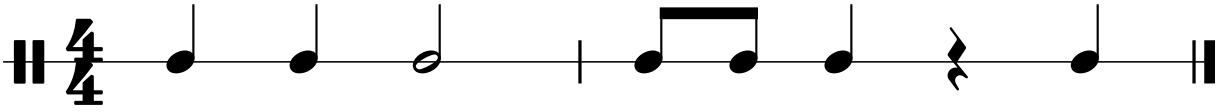

5.  = _____

6.  = _____

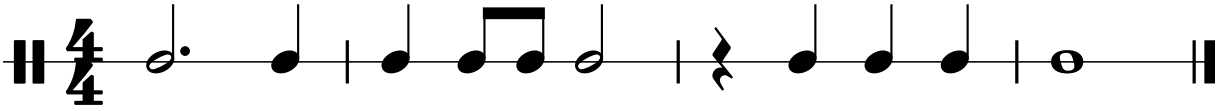

7.  = _____

8.  = _____

B. Write the counts Write the counts under each rhythm. Put held and rested beats in parentheses.

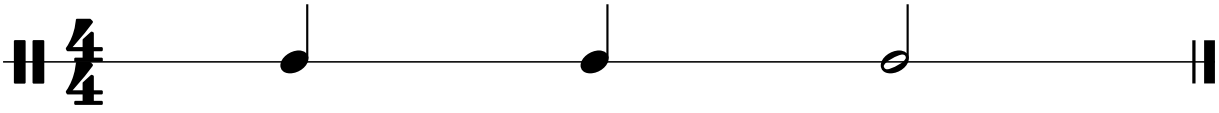

EXAMPLE

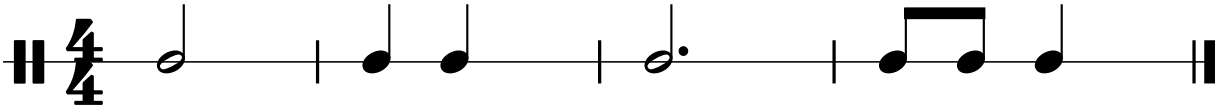

1 2 3 (4) 1 & 2 (3) 4

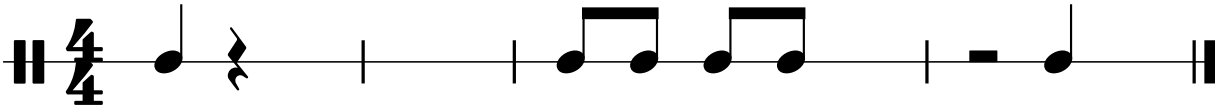

1.

2.

C. Complete the measures Add notes or rests to each measure so that it has four beats. More than one answer is correct.
